CLIENT CHALLENGES

- » The board of the client engaged a global consulting firm to identify the right partner to accelerate its strategic growth plan
- » Copal Amba was selected to provide knowledge services after a rigorous selection process
- » As part of this mandate, the client required Copal Amba to perform performance and risk analytics for its investment division teams
- » The client also needed Copal Amba to create an advanced analytics framework for its existing performance measurement, investment risk assessment, portfolio attribution capabilities, manager research, data management and client reporting

OUR APPROACH

- » Deployed a 23-member team of domain specialists knowledgeable in MATLAB, R, C#, Excel and VBA and proficient in FactSet, Barra and Axioma systems
- » Customized reports for each asset class across global teams to best suit portfolio managers' requirements
- » Ensured centralized report production and, wherever possible, standardized templates
- » Integrated advanced risk analytics platforms – Axioma and Barra – with client systems
- » Fully automated the process of producing and distributing reports based on FactSet Portfolio Analytics, Dashboard and Batchter
- » Managed the data flow across multiple databases, assisted in manager / benchmark transition process
- » Developed and maintained tools for internal client needs

IMPACT DELIVERED

- » Helped the client receiving the scheduled analytics 80% faster – T+2 vs. T+10 previously
- » Saved $1.4m in annualized costs
- » A pooled resourcing structure helped inter-connectivity across various teams within the Investment Division
- » Delivered end-to-end solution across different phases of portfolio life cycle
- » Provided access to domain specialists for custom analytics support
