

The chart below provides an update on the C19 situation by state:

- » Maharashtra remains at the top, with the most number of confirmed cases and deaths. Kerala has moved to the fourth place (from top six previously)
- » Delhi continues to lead the way, with tests of around 504.5k/mn, while Rajasthan has moved to the bottom (73.1k/mn)
- » Despite at elevated levels, positivity rate (total cases/total tests) has reduced in Maharashtra (14.4%)

Chart 1: Top 10 COVID States

Source: Covid19india.org, Acuity Knowledge Partners. Data as of 19 January 2021

